

Noah Damski

ndamski3@gmail.com | 786-205-1940 | Miami, Florida | ndamski.github.io | LinkedIn

EDUCATION

University of Florida

Gainesville, FL

B.A. in Economics & International Studies (Europe)

Aug. 2022 – May 2026

- Relevant Coursework: Econometrics, Managerial Economics, Game Theory, Antitrust Economics, European Economic Integration, State Building in Europe

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Intern, Financial Technology Start-Up

May 2025 – Aug. 2025

- Conducted market landscape analysis of fintech and personal finance startups to inform early-stage B2B strategy; synthesized findings into market intelligence reports used in investor presentations.
- Identified competitive positioning opportunities and growth trends across the personal finance sector to support business development decisions.

Forester Intern, Florida Forest Service

May 2024 – Aug. 2024

- Assisted State Foresters in managing public lands across competing financial and environmental objectives, contributing to operational assessments of land use and resource allocation.
- Maintained field records and operational data, and engaged the public on land use policy and sustainable forest management practices.

Bakery Clerk, Publix Super Markets

Jun. 2021 – Dec. 2021

- Acted as intermediary between bakery staff and customers, facilitating clear communication, coordinating orders, and ensuring a positive and efficient shopping experience.
- Maintained cleanliness and organization of both customer-facing and production areas while providing operational support to bakers through professionalism, attentiveness, and adherence to food safety standards.

County Judge Aide Intern, Miami-Dade County Misdemeanor Court

May 2019 – Aug. 2019

- Supported judicial proceedings under a misdemeanor-division judge, tracking case developments and coordinating communication between the judge and active parties.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Presenter, PREDOC.org Research Conference

Jul. 2026

University of Chicago Booth School of Business

- Selected to present original economics research; built a PPML gravity model estimating trade diversion effects across 78 ACP countries and 27 EU member states, examining regional integration as a stumbling block to broader trade.

Presenter, Undergraduate Research Conference on the European Union

Apr. 2026

EU Center of California, Scripps College

- Selected to present research examining how the 2019 selection of Ursula von der Leyen produced a structural democratic deficit in EU institutional design through the collapse of the Spitzenkandidaten process.

Model EU Delegate, European Union Club

Sep. 2025 – Current

- Won UF's Model EU competition and qualified to represent UF at the Schuman Challenge in Washington, DC.
- Developed and presented policy positions, negotiated with peer delegates, and demonstrated strong understanding of EU governance.

Research Fellow, UF Center for European Studies

Jan. 2025 – Jun. 2025

- Member of the Spring 2025 CES Research Cohort; co-authored peer-reviewed article published in Populism (Brill, 2025).
- Applied comparative discourse analysis and political theory to Central European election patterns; conducted literature review on far-right populism.

SKILLS

Quantitative: R, Excel, OLS & PPML regression, market landscape analysis

Technical: Python, arcGIS Pro, GitHub, Microsoft Office Suite, Google Workspace

Languages: English (Native), Spanish & German (Conversational)